    - (v) Government Resolution, Finance Department, No. LVE-2477/CR-18.B/SER-9, dated 21st August 1978.

RESOLUTION: Government has had under consideration the question of enhancing the limit of 120 days on grant of earned leave as leave preparatory to retirement laid down in Rule 6 of the Revised Leave Rules, 1935. After careful consideration, Government is pleased to direct that, with effect from 1st March 1978, the limit of 120 days on grant of earned leave as leave preparatory to retirement should be raised to 180 days.

2. As a corollary to the decision mentioned in paragraph 1 above, Government is pleased to direct, (i) in modification of Government Assolution, Finance Department, No. LVE-1074/9/GI/74/S-2, dated 23rd October 1974 read with Government Resolution, Finance Department, No.LVE-1076/603/GI/76/SER-9, dated 5th August 1976 that in cases where a Government servant dies while in service, the cash equivalent of the leave salary the deceased Government servant would have got, had he gone on earned leave that would have been due and admissible to him but for his death on the date immediately following the death, should be paid with effect from 1st March 1978 to the extent of 180 days of earned leave instead of 120 days as at present; (ii) in modification of Government Resolution, Finance Department, No. LVE-2477/CR-1397/ SER-9, dated 25th April 1978 that payment of cash equivalent of the unutilised earned leave to the extent of 180 days instead of 120 days as at present standing at the credit of a Government servant retiring on superannuation should be allowed with effect from 1st March 1978, and (iii) in modification of Government Resolution, Finance Department, No.174, dated the 21st October 1950, dearness allowance will, with effect from 1st March 1978, be admissible during the first 180 days of leave preparatory to retirement spent in India.

3. Paragraph 1(d) of Government Resolution, Finance Department, No. LVE-2477/CR-1397/SER-9, dated 25th April 1978 requires the amount of persion and pension equivalent of other retirement benefits to be deducted from the cash equivalent of the leave salary of the unutilised earned leave at the credit of a Government servant retiring on superunnuation. Government has reviewed this position and is pleased to
